

South Cumbria Musical Festival

The Future of the Festival

The festival trustees wish to spread the workload of the organisational team to provide continuity for the festival in the future.

If you have skills that would help in any capacity, and are willing to give your time freely to join the organisational team, please contact the Festival Chairman, Bob McClean, either personally or by ringing 01229 826122.